This is a formal PROTEST to each of the 5 members of the Federal Communications Commission concerning the recent 4-1 vote to fine radio station WKRK a mere $27,500 for the Jan. 9, 2002 broadcast "Deminski & Doyle Show."

I have read an extensive transcript of this broadcast provided by Parents Television Council [provided below], and it is clear that broadcast constituted prolonged, flagrant, reckless and irrespons indecency.

This station's license should be revoked.

I agree with FCC Commissioner Michael Copps that a fine of just $ is a mere "slap on the wrist"--especially considering the vast fir assets of WKRK's corporate parents, Infinity Broadcasting and Via

To these corporations, $27,500 is an insignificant amount of mone therefore no deterrent against future indecent broadcasts.

Infinity has already paid more than $1.5 million in previous FCC indecency fines, and yet its stations such as WKRK continue to sp indecentcy.

This new "slap on the wrist" fine will do nothing to reduce broadcast indecentcy. In fact, the FCC would be giving WKRK and other stations implicit "green light" to continue broadcasting gross indecentcy with fear of the consequences.

As a tax-paying citizen whose interests the FCC is supposed to serve by enforcing the Federal law against broadcast indecentcy, I DEMAND:

- That the FCC immediately convene a new hearing to consider revocation of WKRK's broadcast license;
- That you vote FOR revocation of the license at such hearing;
- And that each of you notify me, personally, of the actions you have taken in this case and will take in other cases of broadcast indecentcy to enforce the law. The days of ignoring broadcast indecentcy and non-enforcement of the law at the FCC must end—NOW!

Sincerely,
